

Bardstown

(Is My Hometown)

In the heartland of Kentucky
Where the lush green bluegrass grows
And the Bourbon Trail rolls onward
As the South Wind gently blows

There you'll find in all her splendor
Nelson County's constant pride
The most beautiful of small towns
Where forever I'll reside

*Bardstown is my hometown... root of my family tree
A sweeter sight upon my eyes not ever could there be
Bardstown is my hometown... the heart and soul of me
No other place on this good Earth is half as heavenly*

Graced with Southern charm and culture
By her people warm and kind
She's the home in old Kentucky
Stephen Foster had in mind

If you'll stop by for a visit
For a week or just one day
You will fall in love with Bardstown
And be welcomed home to stay

*Bardstown is my hometown... root of my family tree
A sweeter sight upon my eyes not ever could there be
Bardstown is my hometown... the heart and soul of me
No other place on this good Earth is half as heavenly*

INSTRUMENTAL

*Bardstown is my hometown... the heart and soul of me
No other place on this good Earth is half as heavenly*

No other place than Bardstown is half as heavenly
