

Ortyn and The Aliens

We All Need Family

*"To be or not to be..." "...the truth shall make you free."
Kings poets and philosophers have sought to find the key
The secret to true happiness... the way life ought to be
But we contend it's simple friend... we all need family*

A house is not a home
No it's just a roof above us
If sadly we live all alone
With no one there to love us
To cheer ourselves... be safe and sound
And steer clear of what's harmful
We need someone who'll stay around
To keep our hearts and arms full

*"To be or not to be..." "...the truth shall make you free."
Kings poets and philosophers have sought to find the key
The secret to true happiness... the way life ought to be
But we contend it's simple friend... we all need family*

It's easy to get mad
At a father or a mother
Or wish we never ever had
A sister or a brother
But sometimes wishes do come true
So better to be careful
Once granted they're hard to undo
No matter if we're prayerful

"To be or not to be..." "...the truth shall make you free."
Kings poets and philosophers have sought to find the key
The secret to true happiness... the way life ought to be
But we contend it's simple friend... we all need family*
